NEATNESS IN ACTION

Angus Drennan's anticipation still ranks with the best, and allows him to play with a neatness and economy of motion which tends to make spectators forget that he is on the pitch.

JUVENTUS HAS FLAG SEWN UP

Today's Games Anti-Climax

Juventus should win its fifth 1st Division Premiership in succession to-day when it canters in with a win over Prahran at the Showgrounds.

Neither Prahran nor Footscray City, both of whom have been beaten twice by nearly every team in the League, is expected to provide more than token resistance to joint leaders, Juventus and Hakoah, to-day.

This will leave the Italians and the Blues equal with 28 pennant points each. But to beat the three-to-one goal ratio which will have been put up by Juventus by 4.30 p.m. to-day, Hakoah will have to kick approximately 35 goals against Footscray City.

Despite the fact that the Blues are in top form, it is reasonable to doubt that they can score at the rate of 25 goals per hour!

It can truly be said that Juventus won the flag on the strength of one goal this year — the goal scored by Joe Plateo in the last seconds of the game with Moreland two weeks ago which gave Juventus a win instead of a draw, and saved a vital point.

By the same token, it can be said that Hakoah lost the pennant on one goal — a goal kicked for J.U.S.T. by the Blues which gave the Jugoslavs a draw, and cost a vital point.

Hakoah started the second round by being thrashed by Brighton, then presented J.U.S.T. with a draw. Since then, they have soundly beaten every other team in the League.

But, taken over the whole season, Juventus has proven itself to be the most consistent team in the pennant competition, and thoroughly deserves its premiership.

ASSOCIATION BALL AN UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS

Olympic Fund Will Benefit

A large and happy throng enjoyed the 1956 Soccer Association Ball, held at the Royale Ballroom last Monday night, and pronounced it the best to date.

Although accounts have yet to be finalised, a rough trial balance calculated by the Chairman of the Social Committee (Mr. Charles Dodd) would indicate that the Olympic Fund will benefit substantially.

Juventus and South Melbourne United were represented by the largest contingent, closely followed by Wilhelmina, Hakoah, Slavia, and Polonia.

The novel entertainment provided by Danny Rose and Barry Sandford, present by courtesy of Maas Cabaret, was a highlight of the night.

Prahran won the prize for table decorations.

BELLE OF BALL DEADLOCK

The Belle of the Ball last Monday night was decided by popular vote as registered by applause, and great was the perplexity of the judges when, after the entrants had been narrowed down to two, they considered the voting evenly divided.

After several "re-plays," the judges finally decided in favour of "the lady in white," lovely brunette, Mrs. Elaine Niell, who was squired by her hubby, Bert.

Mr. Reg. Lawrence, who had donated the valuable necklet jewellery set which was the Belle's prize, immediately came forward, and, much to the satisfaction of all present, stated that, inasmuch as there seemed to be a virtual "dead-heat" between the two finalists, the prize would be duplicated.

Thus it can be said that the Ball produced two Belles, the second being the graceful and charming honey blonde — "the lady in pink" — Miss Irene Hunt, who was partnered by Syd Thomas.

HARRY RICE! Don't You Dare!

We are glad to report that Harry didn't do it. Although this was clearly a case of bottoms up and very tempting, Harry refrained from kicking Ray Barotajs in the middle of his — ah — goal area.

OLYMPIC TRIALS MARRED BY INJURIES

Squad Defeated in Sydney, Win in Newcastle

With several of its players injured and replaced by local reserves, the Olympic Probables Team was defeated 3-1 in Sydney by a New South Wales side, and won in Newcastle 1-0.

The absence of key players of necessity altered the nature of the games, making the work of the selection of the Olympic Squad even more difficult.

The local replacements had never played representative football before, and no star players were available for the Probables.

Among the injured were Col Kitching, centre forward, of Queensland and Don Brown, right winger, of New South Wales.

Although seriously hampered by an injury, Al Sanders, centre half, of Queensland, played, but was naturally unable to show his usual dashing form.

The Victorian members of the side — Bob Wemyss, Bill Harburn, Frank Loughran, and Ted Smith — also seemed to be affected by the general apathy, and failed to shine.

The Australian Soccer Association will meet on September 20 to select the Olympic Team, its Manager, and its Coach.

BOX HILL MAN RETIRES

Acting upon medical advice, Mr. John Fox, Box Hill Life Member and former player, will retire from his many duties with the Club.

The Fox family are rather famous Box Hill identities, John's mother also being a Life Member, and five brothers also having played with the Hillmen.

Yet another former player whose interests lay with the juniors, he was a delegate to the Junior Association.

Councillor Ill, Improving

Mr. Jim Paul, Deputy Chairman of the Victorian Soccer Council, and Manager of the Victorian Colts, has had a sojourn in the Alfred Hospital as the result of an illness which laid him low a fortnight ago, but is reported to be well on the mend now.

Italian, Dutch Consuls at Game Today

The Wilhelmina-Geelong match at Hawthorn to-day will be honoured by the presence of both the Italian Consul (Marquis G. Serafini) and the Dutch Consul (Mr. O. G. J. Veling).

Regardless of the result of to-day's game, which is the last League game of the season for Wilhelmina, but which leaves Geelong with a re-play, both the Dutch and Italian teams have earned promotion into the 1st Division.

HAKOAH PLAYS TOMORROW

Hakoah will play its final match of the League season against Footscray City to-morrow at Middle Park at 2.45 p.m.

Curtain-raiser at 1 p.m. will be the Reserves game, Hakoah v. Slavia.

Jet-Propelled Penalty Save

Leaving behind him what appears to be a cloud of smoke, Ray Barotajs leaps to save a penalty kick. This is the second time this season that Ray has stopped one of Harry Sutherland's bullet-like kicks off the 12-yard spot, and the spontaneous tribute paid him by his team-mates, his opponents, and the supporters of both teams at Port Melbourne last week was mighty good to see and to hear.

STATUS QUO IN ARGUS MEDAL

With none of the leaders in the voting for the "Argus" Best and Fairest Medal scoring this week, the list of aggregate votes remains the same near the top.

Zablocki (Slavia), Garland (Box Hill), Ewing (Prahran), Innard (Moreland), and Waitzer (Brighton) were the recipients of the major points this week.

Box Hill Seeks Recruits

Box Hill reports that grading work on its new ground is progressing satisfactorily, and that the new pitch should be ready for the opening of the 1957 season.

The team to go with its new headquarters is lacking in only one respect — a few sharp-shooting forwards would be warmly welcomed.

Any players, and particularly those who fancy themselves in attack, who would like to join this grand old Club should contact its Secretary, Mr. Lester Hutchinson, evenings, at WX 7640.

de BRUYCKERE FOR SYDNEY

Sydney will see its first night soccer at the opening of the new Grand Oval next Thursday, August 29.

For this gala occasion, interstate and local stars will appear in two combined teams, and Mike de Bruyckere has been invited to represent Victoria — a signal honour.

NEW METHODS REQUIRED FOR BETTER SOCCER

Unfit Players, Old Ways, Won't Do, Says Coach

"Physical fitness in the REAL sense of the phrase is practically non-existent in Australian soccer," says Mr. Len Young, the Victorian State Coach.

"It is of little use for a player to possess certain gifts in soccer skill if the condition of his body prevents him from using them."

Mr. Young also points out that the tactical approach to the game in local football is lacking in imagination.

"With few exceptions," he says, "the play is reminiscent of the old English Corinthian style — get the ball upfield and go hell-for-leather after it, giving a bump and taking a bump on the way."

He agrees that soccer is a virile game, but its toughness should be allied to modern tactical ideas based on sound team moves and formations, with the players taught to think in terms of tactics.

In the national sphere, Mr. Young advocates an annual conference of State Coaches and Trainers for discussions and refresher courses. This could result, he feels, in an era of rapid improvement in Australian soccer.

"Working along similar lines," says Mr. Young, "Hogan did it for Hungary, and Raynor did it for Sweden, and there seems to be no sound reason why a group of sincere coaches cannot do it for Australia."

Hellenic's senior team was shamed into it by their Reserves. When they learned last Saturday that the Reserves had defeated their opponents with a tally of 10 goals, they simply had to do the same. Result — Hellenic d. Park Rangers, 10-3.

Brighton isn't the only Club entertaining to-night — George Cross will try to repeat its smashing success of a few weeks back at St. Brigid's Hall, Nicholson St., Fitzroy. St. Brigid's is right opposite the Adelphi Theatre.

Prahran took the table decoration's prize at the Ball last Monday night, but "Soccer News" was intrigued by the large cake at one of the many tables occupied by Juventus. It was in the form of a soccer pitch, complete with goals. The corner flags each bore numerals representing one of the four years, 1952 to 1955, in which Juventus won the premiership. They modestly refrained from showing a fifth flag for 1956. Lined up on the "pitch" were 15 dolls, in Juventus strip, and each bearing the name of a current star player — not excluding Max Vivoli. The whole thing was very, very unique.

Coburg's dance last Saturday night was a huge success, and Rino Chircop, the injured player for whom the dance was arranged, has benefited by a substantial sum.

Billy Guy, of South Melbourne, takes "Soccer News' 'to task for its opinions on the results of forthcoming games — particularly those concerning South. "You can't write a team off as beaten before the game is played," says Billy, with a great deal of justification. "How can we be already licked by Hakoah in the Cup when we don't even play the game until next week?"

Well, it's this away, Billy. Most readers expect us guys to do their thinking for them, or read papers to get so-called "expert" confirmation of what they already think. Actually, we all know that the "expert" doesn't know any more than the average supporter. But the "expert" has one advantage — he's not one-eyed. And getting back to cases, we think Hakoah will beat South Melbourne next week.

But, listen to this, Billy — we are very happy to report that Brighton proved us to be anything but "expert" in our selections four times this season, and what Brighton can do, other virile Clubs can and have done.

Over to you, Billy.

After nearly three months in hospital, George Mellinghoff, the N.S.W. player who suffered torn tendons in the Queen's Birthday interstate match, has at last been allowed to go home to Newcastle. Surgeons were happy about the outcome of their work, but whether George will ever play soccer again is problematical.

YOUTH CAMP FOR SOCCER?

A recent arrival from England, Mr. Bryan Nettleton, who is with the National Fitness Council, is sounding out the possibilities of obtaining sufficient applications from members of Youth Clubs, in the 16 to 21 age bracket, to justify the establishment of week-end soccer camps.

The boys would receive training and coaching, and would participate in games, probably at the Fitness Council's camp at Mt. Evelyn.

Mr. Len Young would receive enquiries in connection with this project at JU 4071.

Colac Seeks Aid for Juniors

The Secretary of the Colac Soccer Club, Mr. Graham Feddersen, is having difficulty in finding the life-blood of soccer — promising juniors.

With several senior players willing to do coaching on sports days, the Club intends to approach the local schools with a view to introducing the game to the schoolboys.

The difficulty is, of course, equipment, without which sportsmasters will remain apathetic toward soccer. The Colac Police Boys' Club is interested in the scheme, and both Terang and Mortlake will follow Colac's lead if the latter is successful.

Colac will approach the Victorian Association for guidance and help in this vital project.

DANCE UNTIL 5 a.m.!

A check up with John Melnyk, Secretary of the Lions Soccer Club, confirmed it — his Club's Annual Ball next Friday night is an all-nighter. Dancing will begin at 8.30 p.m., and will go on until 5 a.m.!

Lions is a Ukrainian Club, and the Ball will be held in the Ukrainian Association Hall, which is in a handy spot in South Melbourne. The address — 248 Dorcas St. — is practically alongside the South Melbourne Town Hall.

Dockerty Cup quarter-finalist players will be sent home at 11 p.m., but all others may stay the night and dance with Botte's Orchestra. There'll be the usual attractions — good supper, Belle of the Ball contest, and so on.

Mr. Wirt will take enquiries at JJ 4721.
